PIZZO BEACH CLUB RESORT

ITALIAN
Riviera living

ITALIAN Riviera Living for relaxation, for investment, for life...

If Italy's a boot, Calabria is its southernmost toe: a narrow 250 km peninsula like a precious string of pearls in a scenically rocky setting between the turquoise Ionian and Tyrrhenian seas and edged with lustrous golden beaches. And here is where you'll find and revel in the epitome of the elusive dolce vita.

For its blessed climate, breathtaking natural beauty, its culture, heritage, superb cuisine and wines and much more besides, the original Italian Riviera is impossible to beat. Little wonder, then, that it's so popular with holidaymakers from Northern Italy - the real surprise is that they've managed to keep this hidden gem to themselves for so long!

Italian Riviera living's a dream come true for sun seekers, and investors alike. Where else can you bask on a pristine beach in the morning and hit the ski slopes in the afternoon? Thanks to government and EU investment and numerous airlines with regular flights from the UK, the region's on the cusp of a major resurgence - yet you can buy property in the heart of Old Europe at emerging nation prices. And with experts forecasting a bright future, this will bring this area into line with those of the most popular Northern Italian regions, you can look forward to a superb and rapid return on your investment. With added peace of mind of a stable Euro Zone economy, well-established property laws that make conveyancing as easy as at home and all just a two-hour flight from the UK, you have what we consider to be the European investment opportunity of the decade and the enjoyment opportunity of a lifetime.

Windrush Alliance;

Overseas real estate with a professional touch... Windrush was born from the idea of professionalism and outstanding customer service. The partners at Windrush, who together have over 15 years experience in the international market, saw an opportunity to offer a business model that not only offered outstanding sustainable investments but doing so with a smile and a touch of elegance.

Futhermore we grew the idea of offering all services under one roof through our team of experienced professionals, from property sale, right through to furnishing your property. A true 'ONE STOP SHOP'

Introduction

Windrush Alliance is one of Europe's leading international property investment companies specializing in new and resale property and has identified the Italian market, especially the southern regions as an outstanding investment and lifestyle choice. Our aim is to deliver excellent long term returns on your investment by selecting property developments in the most desirable locations. In order to sustain this process, Windrush uses an innovative and unique approach to the overseas property market which focuses on exceptional customer service and product innovation, backed up by the fact that we only use the most reputable builders & developers who have been fully certified by our in-house legal department.

We also affiliate with some of the biggest companies in the financial market in order to offer our clients secure financial advice.

As Giuseppe Verdi, famous Italian composer, once said
"You may have the universe if I may have Italy"
In a nutshell that's how we feel!

PIZZO

Prettily perched on a high slope of an enchanting promontory into the Tyrrhenian Sea in the heart of the Sant' Eufemia Gulf, Pizzo is one of the Vibo Valentia district's most beautiful and best - known towns. Built on the ruins of ancient Roman Napitia, where St Peter stopped on his journey to Rome, Pizzo is in the northern stretch of the aptly named Coast of the Gods amid some of Italy's most breathtaking landscapes. With its thriving fishing port, maze of narrow mediaval streets and lanes linked by tiny staircases, ancient fountains, buildings and churches and the Spuntone - a large balcony from which you can view the imposing Aragonis Castle and the sea from Lamezia to Capo vaticano - Pizzo is steeped in history. But it's also a vibrant and well - equipped modern resort town with every facility and attraction the cosmopolitan traveler could wish for - from watersports through golf and specialist historical tours to an excellent range of seafood restaurants and nightlife and the best ice cream in the world - so it's little wonder that Pizzo is now one of the Vibo Valentia's most fashionable resorts, or that we chose this as the location for our latest prestige development.

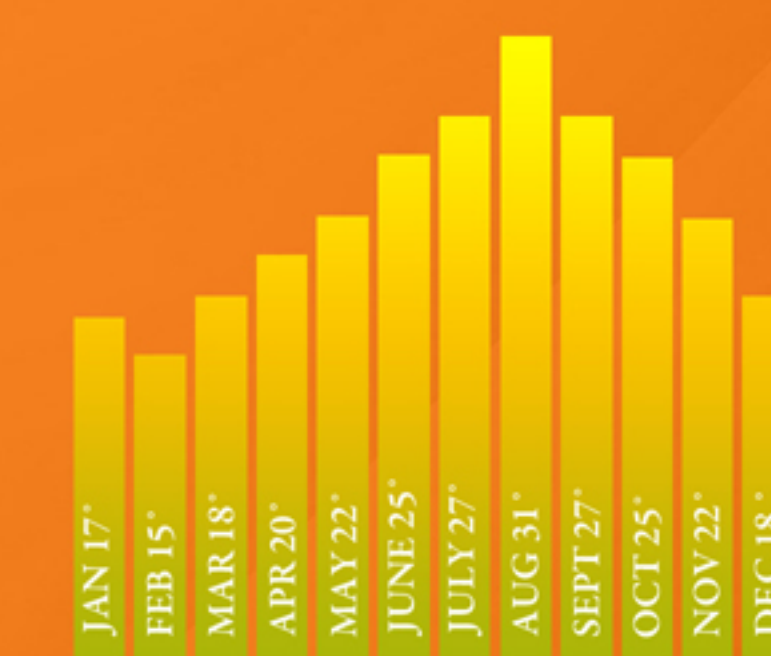

Welcome to Calabria the real Italian Riviera

Calabria's dramatic mountainous interior is fringed by a scenic rugged coastline and some of the most fabulous beaches you'll find anywhere. With temperatures ranging from below zero in the mountain ski resorts in winter to more than 40°C a long the coast in summer, the climate's as pleasant as its people, who are renowned for their warmth, generosity and sense of fun. Dotted among the forests, lakes, mountains and 800 km of fabulous coastline are countless Greek, Roman, Byzantine, Norman and Bourbon archaeological treasures, bearing fascinating testament to the region's rich history and cultural diversity. And whether it's the delicate scent of acacias in spring, the heady aroma in summer of fermenting grapes for the region's celebrated Cirò and other wines or the pungent musk of freshly ground olives in winter, there's always something seductive in the air.

Amid all this timeless grace and beauty, however, you can sense a gentle wind of change - a renewed economic vibrancy that means there's never been a better time to invest in Calabria. Thanks to new roads, infrastructure three new airports and EU investment this beautiful, unspoilt part of Southern Italy is almost effortlessly and affordably accessible from the UK - yet strict Italian legal development restrictions ensure that Calabria will remain unspoilt and will never be scarred by overdevelopment like the Costa Del Sol, for example. And because we offer a totally secure and comprehensive investment and lifestyle package covering every last detail of your purchase from independent financial advice to superb after sales service from our local team, your laid-back and relaxed new lifestyle starts with our very first meeting!

"The Italian government is pushing money into the region to encourage regeneration and tourism, road links have been improved, and there is an international air port at Lamezia Terme that has flights from Germany, Holland, Switzerland and the UK. I believe property prices in this region have a good chance of increasing significantly over the next few years. Tourism and holiday housing is a prime target for growth as prices are still lower than in many comparable locations. You could expect double digit growth."
SUNDAY TIMES.

"Calabria's coastline is among the most unspoilt and affordable in Europe."
Laura Lathan, THE INDEPENDENT.

Overall I found the process very easy as our host Windrush were very friendly, courteous and very professional throughout. I would have no hesitation in recommending this company not only for the service but the great value too.

Kevin and Linda Dolan.

THE BUYING PROCESS

At Windrush we believe in making every part of your investment process as stress-free as the laid-back lifestyle you're buying into. We've achieved that by investing in our own network of key business partners, each with their own special contribution to your security and peace of mind. Together they make up one of the largest client care teams in Europe - and they'll be with you every step of the way through the purchase and constantly on hand for after sales service. We can even provide a personalised turnkey furnishing service so that your new home's ready to live in from the moment you collect the keys !

THE PROCESS IN BRIEF

- Once you've settled on your choice of property we ask you to pay an initial reservation fee of £3000 before embarking within 28 days on an inspection trip to explore the resort and its surroundings
- If you then decide to go ahead with the purchase, the 3000 goes towards your deposit of 40% of the sales price
- On completion and handover of your property, the balance of 60% is due
- Each of these transactions is handled by an independent lawyer who's fully qualified and highly experienced in European Property law
- To ensure you're clear with the process from the word go, your lawyer will talk you through every step over a pleasant dinner and answer any and all of your questions
- All building work comes with a ten-year guarantee
- Please get in touch if you'd like more details on these or any other aspects of the buying process

SECURE RENTAL INCOME

Whether you're buying purely for investment purposes or seeking to rent your property part-time, the immense popularity of the region, especially among Italians, means that high season rental income alone will more than cover your annual mortgage outgoings . If you're looking for rental in the longer term, we'll put you in touch with one of our rental income agents and they will advise you in the light of their expert local market knowledge.

TOTAL SERVICE AND SUPPORT

Your dedicated Customer Care representative will liaise constantly between you and the builder and keep you up to date in your own language. Then, after completion, you'll find it reassuring to have the team at hand to help with ongoing maintenance, management and troubleshooting.

RESALE SERVICES

Thanks to our partnership with a global network of real estate agents, you're already in the best of hands should you decide to realise your asset. If, like many of our clients, you're looking to re-invest in emerging markets, you're invited to join our Investors' Club, which keeps your finger on the pulse of the latest exciting opportunities .

MORTGAGE, FINANCE AND LEGAL SERVICES

Our expert in-house consultants will be happy to provide advice and assistance with every aspect of financing your purchase, from mortgages to equity release, whether through British, Irish or Italian lenders.

INSURANCE - REST ASSURED WITH Windrush

You're probably not familiar with the intricacies of the Italian insurance industry - so our experienced consultants are at your disposal to arrange every policy you could need, including:

- Home insurance: including building, contents, material damage and legal cover
- Car insurance: fully comprehensive, third party, windscreen and full breakdown cover
- Medical insurance: EHIC, health card, private health and dental cover
- Family pets
